INCIDENT SUMMARY

This investigation details a deputy involved shooting that occurred in the Century Station area. Thirteen deputies and one South Gate Police Officer discharged their weapons. The deputies and South Gate Officer were not interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau at the time of the incident. The facts outlining this investigation were gathered from various witness interviews, homicide's shooting investigation, and various police reports (See Exhibit "A", Police Reports).

Suspect Jeffrey Konrath, MW/27 (deceased), was living with his [redacted] in [redacted], prior to this incident. His [redacted] stated that he began experiencing mental problems at age 16 or 17, which she attributed to his heavy drug use of P.C.P. and crack cocaine. The suspect was hospitalized at age 18 for three months. He was diagnosed as manic-depressive and schizophrenic and was prescribed Lithium for his condition. During the same year that he was hospitalized, he moved to Chicago to attend school with his [redacted]. Both the suspect and his [redacted] continued to use drugs regularly. The [redacted] left the suspect and took up with his (suspect's) best friend. It was reported that the suspect was devastated by the break-up and moved back home to live with his [redacted]. The suspect continued to live with his [redacted] and take his prescribed Lithium until October of 1994. The suspect's local criminal history consisted of [redacted] during this time.

The suspect was last seen in [redacted], by his [redacted], on October 12, 1994. The suspect travelled west and was involved in several violent crimes. [redacted].

Suspect Konrath registered in a motel in Laguna Beach, California, on 11/03/94. [redacted].

On 11/05/94, at approximately 1925 hours, witnesses saw the suspect walking around the parking lot of the "Sassony Plaza" mini-mall (first shooting location) at 7848 Pacific Boulevard. Witness [redacted], a business owner in the mini-mall, saw the suspect look into several businesses at the location and then walk across Pacific Boulevard to another shopping plaza. Witness [redacted] said the suspect returned and again looked into the windows of the various businesses. [redacted] said the suspect was acting suspiciously and he ([redacted]) locked himself inside his business which faces west in the "L" shaped mini-mall (See diagram and photographs of location, Exhibit "B").

Witness [redacted] said he lost sight of the suspect when the suspect walked toward the south facing businesses of the mini-mall. [redacted] stepped out to investigate and saw two women lying on the floor of the [redacted]", [redacted] Pacific Boulevard, Suite [redacted]. He said he thought the two women had been possibly shot. Witness [redacted] said he also saw the suspect atop a female victim and it appeared that he was forcing her to perform oral sex. [redacted] returned to his business and dialed "911". He said he remained on the line until deputies responded and investigated the incident.

Rape victim, [redacted], FH/21, stated that she was inside the "[redacted]" visiting [redacted]. She said the suspect entered the [redacted] and asked the price of a haircut. After being told the price the suspect said he did not want a haircut and removed a gun from a plastic shopping bag that he was carrying. He told everyone to lay down on the floor behind the counter (See diagram of [redacted], Exhibit "C"). Victim [redacted] stated that she, [redacted], and two other female employees complied.

The suspect asked the victims where they kept their cash box and was told that it was under the counter. The suspect retrieved it from the counter and poured the money into the plastic shopping bag that he was carrying. Victim [redacted] said after he had taken the money he grabbed her and pulled her over to a couch near the front of the [redacted]. [redacted] said the suspect exposed his penis and told her, "I want you to suck this gun." [redacted] said she feared for her life and complied. She said the sexual act made her sick and she felt as if she was going to vomit. Victim [redacted] said the suspect struck her several times in the face with a closed fist and told her to use her tongue, not her teeth.

Victim [redacted] said the suspect removed his penis from her mouth and pulled her to over to one of the styling chairs. He again ordered her to orally copulate him. [redacted] said this time he told the other females to watch. She said the suspect removed his penis from her mouth and then ordered all four women to masturbate through their clothing. [redacted] said the suspect eventually demanded the keys for the location and locked the front door from the inside.

Victim [redacted] said the suspect returned and ordered her down on her hands and knees. [redacted] said he attempted to penetrate her vaginally, but it was very painful because she had never had any prior sexual experiences. The suspect ordered her to spread her buttocks with her hands and then jammed his penis into her vagina. She said as this was occurring she saw deputies looking into the salon. Victim [redacted] said the suspect immediately began looking for his gun that he had laid on the floor.

Victim [redacted] said the suspect grabbed her by the waist and led her towards the front door. [redacted] said the suspect unlocked the front door and carried her outside of the location while keeping her close to him with his gun pointed at her head.

> I.A.B. NOTE: Numerous deputies began to arrive at the Pacific Boulevard and Broadway Avenue location in response to the "911" call. This first location will be referred to as scene #1 in this summary and the Homicide investigation.

Deputy Ernest Chavez, #[redacted], was assigned the possible robbery in progress call and responded with his partner, Deputy Michael Hoenig, #[redacted], as unit 216A. Deputy Chavez began to coordinate a multi-unit response and requested an aero unit to fly over without the use of the spotlight. Chavez contained the scene and discovered there were two beauty salons and did not know which one contained the suspect. He directed Deputies George Sakabu, #[redacted], and Chris Marks, #[redacted], unit 217A, to check the front of each business. Deputy Sakabu checked the "[redacted]" and saw the suspect moving around behind the salon counter.

Deputy Sakabu stated that he knocked on the window and motioned for the suspect to come out. The suspect made a waving motion as if to tell Deputy Sakabu to leave. Sakabu said he then saw a female's head appear above the counter and she looked terrified. Deputy Sakabu said he saw that the suspect had his pants down and realized that there was a rape in progress. He said the suspect disappeared behind the counter for approximately ten seconds and reappeared holding Victim [redacted] with a gun to her head.

Deputy Sakabu stated that the suspect started to exit the location and he and his partner moved to a position of cover behind vehicles in the parking lot. He said the suspect exited using the female as a shield and had a gun in his right hand held to her head. The suspect stated several times, "Get back. Drop your guns or I'll kill her". Numerous deputies ordered the suspect to release the female and drop his weapon.

The witnesses stated that the victim's pants were down around her ankles and her blouse was up around her neck. She was wearing only panties and a brassiere. The victim had a difficult time walking and the suspect dragged her along the east mini-mall sidewalk, south, toward Broadway Avenue. Sakabu stated that assisting units were now beginning to arrive and everyone was paralleling the movements of the suspect. The suspect continued dragging the victim toward Broadway Avenue and then moved east on the north sidewalk of Broadway Avenue toward his 1985 Ford Mustang.

Deputy Chavez and other deputies paralleled the suspect on the south side of the street and saw the suspect moved to the rear of the Mustang, which was parked against the north sidewalk of Broadway Avenue. The suspect bent his license plate up and then forced the victim into the driver's side of the Mustang at the same time he entered, still shielding himself. Deputy Chavez stated that he had now positioned himself behind a vehicle on the opposite side of the street. Chavez said he noticed that Deputy Daniel White, #[redacted], was beside him.

Deputy Chavez stated that based on the belief that the suspect had committed a rape/robbery and threatened to kill the victim, he told Deputy White to shoot out the tires of the suspect vehicle.

> I.A.B. NOTE: The command to shoot out the tires was heard by several deputies who did fire on the vehicle. The vehicle was parked facing west on Broadway Avenue. The suspect initially backed-up into a Toyota pick-up truck and then drove west making a u-turn. The u-turn was from north to south and the completed turn left the suspect travelling east on Broadway Avenue. The deputies fired at the vehicle at various points during the u-turn. The deputies' accounts of what occurred while the suspect attempted to flee were substantially the same. The deputies all related that they feared that if the suspect were to escape with the victim, the victim would be killed. The suspect had stated that he would kill the victim several times.
> The following is a synopsis of each deputies' actions at the first shooting scene (Scene #1). The exact locations of the various radio cars and deputy positions are being approximated from the deputy interviews (See Exhibit "D", diagram of scene #1 for positions).

Deputy Bruce Chase, #[redacted] -

Deputy Chase was driving PM unit 216 and was working with Deputy Timothy Duerr. They stopped their patrol car on Pacific Avenue at the northwest corner of the mini-mall. Deputy Chase flanked the suspect through the parking lot and took a position of cover behind an unknown radio car that was parked in the middle of Broadway Avenue facing west. Chase said he heard Deputy Chavez say, "Shoot the tires," and then heard a shotgun fire.

Deputy Chase said he fired twice with his Berretta at the left rear tire as the suspect drove west and then fired four times at the right rear tire as the suspect drove east. Deputy Chase said two patrol cars pursued the suspect vehicle. He said he entered the radio car he had used for cover and at the same time that Deputy Sakabu entered the right front passenger side. Deputy Chase said as he was backing to make a u-turn, Deputies Parga and Barbosa jumped into the left and right rear passenger seats respectively.

Deputy Duerr was book man in PM unit 216 with Deputy Chase. They parked their vehicle on Pacific Avenue at the northwest corner of the mini-mall. Duerr said he followed the suspect through the parking lot and eastbound on the north sidewalk. He said he took up a position behind a Cadillac parked on the north side of Broadway Avenue. Deputy Duerr said he had a clear shot of the suspect's torso just before he entered the getaway vehicle. Duerr said he fired one round from his Berretta and thought he struck the suspect. He said after he fired, he heard other deputies shoot. Deputy Duerr said he did not see an opportunity to take a second shot.

Hanneman said as the vehicle was facing in a northeast direction during the suspect's u-turn, he fired one more time at the suspect's torso.

Deputy Hanneman stated that he pursued the suspect in a radio car and picked-up deputies Chavez and Duerr.

Deputy Chris Marks, #[redacted] -

Deputy Marks was driving PM unit 217A with his partner, Deputy George Sakabu. Marks stated that they parked their vehicle on Broadway Avenue, facing north so that they could block the street. He said they were stopped just east of the location. Deputy Marks said as the suspect entered his vehicle, he took up a position at the northeast corner of the mini-mall. Marks said he heard Deputy Chavez give the command to shoot the tires and several shots were fired from the south side of the street toward the vehicle. He said the suspect drove forward and began his u-turn, exposing the right side of the vehicle to Deputy Marks' position. Deputy Marks said he fired ten rounds from his Berretta at the passenger side tires.

Deputy Marks said he entered a patrol vehicle driven by Deputy Modica and re-loaded his Berretta with a fresh magazine.

Deputy Joseph Barbosa, #[redacted] -

Deputy Barbosa was driving PM unit 217B with his partner, Deputy Carlos Parga. Barbosa stated that they arrived just moments ahead of Sergeant Price and parked their radio car on Pacific Boulevard, at the northwest corner of the mini-mall. He said he followed the suspect and victim through the parking lot and watched them enter the suspect's vehicle. Deputy Barbosa said he heard someone yell, "Shoot the tires." Barbosa said several shots rang out as the suspect drove forward and several more were fired after the suspect made his u-turn. He said he assumed the deputies were shooting at the tires. Deputy Barbosa did not fire his weapon.

Deputy Barbosa said as the vehicle travelled east on Broadway Avenue he jumped into the back of the third radio car in the pursuit.

Deputy Carlos Parga, #[redacted] -

Deputy Parga was book man in PM unit 217B with Deputy Barbosa. Parga said they parked their radio car on Pacific Boulevard, at the northwest corner of the mini-mall. He said he followed the suspect and victim through the parking lot and then took cover behind a vehicle on the south side of Broadway Avenue, just west of the suspect vehicle. Deputy Parga said several deputies ordered the suspect to release the hostage, but he would not comply. Parga said as the vehicle pulled away from the curb he fired once from his Berretta at the left rear tire. He said he heard someone yelling, "Shoot the tires out."

Deputy Parga stated that after the vehicle drove off eastbound on Broadway Avenue he jumped into the right rear seat of a passing radio car driven by Deputy Chase. Parga said Deputy Sakabu was the right front passenger.

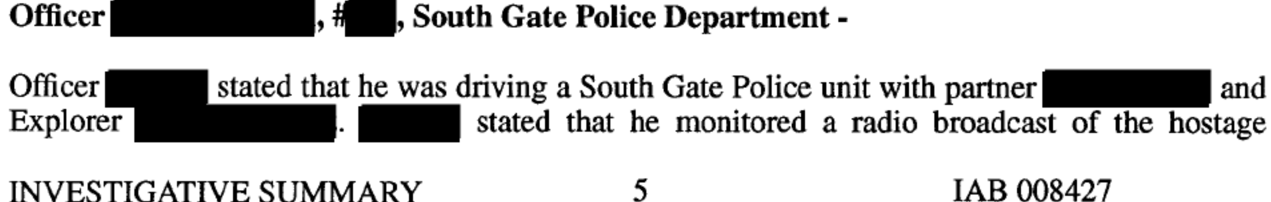

Deputy Joseph Miskevics, #[redacted] -

Deputy Miskevics was book man in PM unit 217 with Deputy Fuchs. Miskevics stated that they arrived at the intersection of Broadway Avenue and Pacific Boulevard as shots were being fired at the suspect vehicle. He said the suspect vehicle made a u-turn and was driving east on Broadway Avenue when he heard someone yell, "Stop your firing, stop your firing."

Deputy Miskevics said he saw a radio car containing Deputies Marks and Modica follow the suspect vehicle east on Broadway Avenue. Miskevics said they joined the pursuit as the second vehicle.

Deputy Michael Hoenig, #[redacted] -

Deputy Hoenig stated that he was book man in PM unit 216A with Deputy Ernest Chavez. Hoenig stated that they parked at the southwest corner of Broadway Avenue and Pacific Boulevard and moved on foot to a position in the parking lot of the mini-mall. He said when the suspect entered his vehicle, he (Hoenig) positioned himself west of the suspect vehicle. Deputy Hoenig said he feared that if the suspect was allowed to leave the victim would be killed. Hoenig said he looked for a clear shot at the suspect, but never saw one. He said once the vehicle began travelling east on Broadway Avenue he pursued it on foot.

Officer [redacted], #[redacted], South Gate Police Department -

Officer [redacted] stated that he was driving a South Gate Police unit with partner [redacted] and Explorer [redacted]. [redacted] stated that he monitored a radio broadcast of the hostage situation and responded via Seville Street and Broadway Avenue. He said he turned east onto Broadway Avenue after seeing the suspect vehicle and one radio car pass by.

Deputy Ernest Chavez, #[redacted]

Deputy Chavez was the driver of PM unit 216A with partner Mike Hoenig. Deputy Chavez stated that he paralleled the suspect's movements through the parking lot and then continued to flank the suspect on the south side of Broadway Avenue. Chavez stated that he felt the suspect would kill the victim if allowed to leave and told Deputy White (located to his right) to shoot out the tires. He said he also fired four rounds at the driver's side tires from his shotgun. Deputy Chavez said he saw the driver's side tires deflate and the suspect made a u-turn. Deputy Chavez said he then used his Berretta to shoot the tires on the passenger side of the vehicle.

Deputy Chavez stated that as the vehicle drove slowly east on Broadway Avenue he directed the deputies to cease fire. Chavez said he recalled one radio car pass by as he stood in the street. He said he entered the rear seat of the next passing radio car and pursued the suspect.

Deputy Daniel White, #[redacted]

Deputy White was the book man in PM unit 213 with Deputy Michael Modica. White said they stopped their car on Broadway Avenue just west of the location. He said he grabbed the shotgun and paralleled the suspect on the south side of Broadway Avenue. Deputy White said Deputy Chavez was just east of his position when he heard Deputy Chavez state, "Shoot the tires." White said he fired two shotgun rounds at the left front, two at the left rear tire, reloaded one shotgun round and fired one more time. He said the suspect vehicle completed the u-turn and he felt he did not have enough time to reload the shotgun again. Deputy White said he withdrew his Berretta and fired five times at the passenger side tires.

Deputy White stated that he saw that all four tires of the suspect vehicle were deflating as the vehicle drove east on Broadway Avenue. White said he saw Deputy Chavez lay his shotgun on the ground and enter a pursuing vehicle. He said he retrieved Deputy Chavez' shotgun and entered one of the other pursuing radio cars.

Deputy Michael Modica, #[redacted]

Deputy Modica was the driver of PM unit 213 with partner, Deputy Michael White. Modica stated that he drove to a position ten yards west of the suspect on Broadway Avenue. He said he exited his patrol car and ordered the suspect to drop the gun. The suspect replied, "Get back or I'll kill her." Deputy Modica said the suspect entered his (suspect's) vehicle and drove westbound, made a u-turn and drove eastbound. Modica said he heard someone yell, "Shoot the tires." He said he fired at the vehicle's left tires with his Berretta (possibly two times).

Deputy Modica said he entered his patrol car on the driver's side and Deputy Marks entered on the passenger side. (Modica and Marks were the first unit to pursue the suspect vehicle.)

Deputy George Sakabu, [redacted]

Deputy Sakabu was the book man in PM unit 217A with partner Deputy Chris Marks. Sakabu's vehicle was parked on Broadway Avenue, facing north, just east of the location. He said he heard Deputy Chavez shout, "Shoot the tires," and then heard gunfire. Deputy Sakabu stated that he was in a bad position and elected not to shoot. Sakabu stated that as the vehicle drove away, he entered a patrol car driven by Deputy Chase and containing Deputies Barbosa and Parga.

Deputy Howard Fuchs, #[redacted] -

Deputy Fuchs was the driver of PM unit 217 with partner, Deputy Joseph Miskevics. Fuchs stated that they were listening to the radio broadcasts of the incident as they arrived at the intersection of Broadway Avenue and Pacific Boulevard. He said he heard someone yell, "Shoot the tires," and then heard gunfire. Deputy Fuchs said from his opened driver's door he fired one round from his Berretta at the suspect's right rear tire.

Deputy Fuchs said he saw a radio car with its red lights and siren following the vehicle. Fuchs said he drove behind this radio car as the second vehicle in the pursuit.

Deputy Michael Patterson, #[redacted] -

Deputy Patterson was the driver of PM unit 215B with partner, Deputy John Terry, #[redacted]. Patterson said they drove to the southeast corner of Pacific Boulevard and Broadway Avenue and parked their radio car. He said he paralleled the suspect on the south side of Broadway Avenue. Deputy Patterson said deputies were telling the suspect to drop his weapon, while the suspect threatened to kill the victim. Patterson said when he heard the suspect's vehicle start he knew he could not allow him to leave. He said he fired (possibly two times) at the suspect's left front tire. Deputy Patterson said he then heard the sound of shotguns being fired.

Deputy Patterson said the suspect made a u-turn and he (Patterson) fired two more times at the suspect's right front tire. Patterson said the suspect vehicle continued east on Broadway Avenue followed by radio cars. He said he retrieved two shotguns left behind by Deputies Chavez and White and entered a radio car now being driven by his partner, Deputy Terry.

> I.A.B NOTE: The suspect vehicle sustained four flat tires during the shooting at the first scene. The suspect was still able to drive the vehicle and attempted to flee east on Broadway Avenue. The suspect was pursued by several radio cars and eventually crashed, a block away, into a chain link fence and driveway at [redacted] Broadway Avenue. Several deputies in various vehicles confronted the suspect, again, at the scene of the crash (See Exhibit "E", diagram and photographs of location).

Victim [redacted] stated that when the suspect entered his vehicle, he pulled her in on top of him. [redacted] said she was sitting on the suspect's lap and then curled up into a ball as the suspect drove away. She said she heard the shooting as they drove off. Victim [redacted] said the suspect made no statements as they drove away.

Victim [redacted] said they drove a short distance and the suspect exited the car and pulled her out. [redacted] said he tried to drag her with him, but she was stuck on a piece of fence. She said the suspect released her and started to run. Victim [redacted] said she laid down and covered her ears because of the sound of gunshots.

Several deputies involved in this second incident stated that they either ordered the suspect to drop his weapon or heard someone else order the suspect to drop his weapon. The deputies stated that they could not see the suspect's right hand (gun hand) as he attempted to pull the victim from the car with his left hand. They feared that the suspect was still armed and would either shoot at them or the victim.

The deputies stated that the suspect started to run from his vehicle and then began to turn and look over his left shoulder. The deputies fired at the suspect who then fell in the driveway of the location. The suspect fell onto his back and continued to move, reaching for his groin area. Several deputies said they still could not see his right hand and fired at the suspect again. The suspect eventually stopped moving and was rolled onto his stomach and handcuffed.
